Why We Rescue

Scarlett's story reminds us why we do this work. Without intervention, horses like her might not get a second chance. We're proud to be part of her journey!

Got Racehorses?

Earlier this fall, we had the pleasure of welcoming two incredible off-track Thoroughbreds from MyRacehorse: Kanthari and Three Jewels. Both horses are now starting exciting new chapters—Three Jewels as a candidate for the Retired Racehorse Project, while Kanthari will begin Liberty training.

Kanthari, sired by Kantharos, is a striking chestnut with a commanding presence, quickly captured our hearts. His love for attention is matched only by his elegance on the field. To mark this new chapter, we hosted a special retirement party for him, giving his dedicated owners a chance to celebrate his transition into a well-deserved post-racing life.

Three Jewels, affectionately known as TJ, is the comedian of the pasture. With his playful antics and sweet personality, he keeps everyone smiling. Whether he's goofing around or charming visitors, TJ brings an irresistible energy to the farm. He's also a bit of a celebrity, as he's sired by American Pharoah!

Both Kanthari and TJ are settling in beautifully, and we can't wait to see what the future holds for these remarkable horses as they begin their second acts. Stay tuned for more updates on their progress!

Retired Racehorse Project

In October, we were thrilled to host a booth at the Retired Racehorse Project (RRP) Thoroughbred Makeover at the Kentucky Horse Park. This event celebrates the versatility of recently retired racehorses as they train for new careers. Trainers from across the country compete in ten disciplines, from dressage and eventing to trail and ranch work, showcasing the endless potential of these remarkable athletes.

We were especially proud to feature our very own Livethedream in the adoption barn! It was a wonderful opportunity to connect with equestrians passionate about giving off-track Thoroughbreds (OTTBs) second chances. Events like this highlight the dedication required to transition these horses into new roles and the importance of aftercare in ensuring their success.

The Thoroughbred Makeover is a powerful reminder of why we do what we do. We're grateful to have been part of this celebration of possibility and hope for Thoroughbreds everywhere.

Scarlett's Second Chance

In September, we rescued Scarlett, a chestnut mare who was severely underweight. Her bones were starkly visible, a heartbreaking sign of neglect. Our team acted swiftly, starting her on a refeeding schedule—1.5 pounds of hay every three hours, day and night—and gradually increasing her intake.

As Scarlett gains weight, her beauty and personality are shining through. She still needs to gain about 200 pounds, but her playful, attention-loving nature shows she's happy and thriving. Despite her past hardships, Scarlett is a remarkably personable mare. She thrives on attention and seems genuinely happy.

Scarlett's story reminds us why we do this work. Without intervention, horses like her might not get a second chance. We're proud to be part of Scarlett's journey and can't wait to see her continue to heal and grow.

We're Thankful for Donors Like You!

We need your help! Every donation, whether monetary or a physical item, makes a world of difference for our horses. We gladly accept equine medical supplies, feed/hay, and farm equipment, with heated automatic waterers being our highest priority. If you're able to donate, please fill out the card below or visit our website at kyeac.org/donate for more details on our current needs. Thank you so much for supporting our mission!

Yes! I want to donate to the Kentucky Equine Adoption Center (KYEAC) to help more equines!
